

Tom Dean & Tom Yoder

Biography

Two of New England's most respected performers have teamed up to create a musically exciting and diverse show using guitar, vocals, mandolin and fiddle. Both of these talented performers have earned the praises of their peers and critics alike. Together they have created a show that will bring a smile to anyone who loves great acoustic music.

Tom Dean toured internationally as a member of the legendary folk trio Devonsquare, sharing the stage with the likes of Bonnie Raitt, Steven Stills, Orleans and Patty Griffin just to name a few. As a solo artist he has earned the praises of radio and press alike with his two independently released solo recordings "Your Own Backyard" (1999) and "Pennies" (2004).

"Tom Dean is simply one of the finest singer-songwriter-musicians, walking this planet today. His music is exciting, mystical, haunting, impassioned, subliminal. This has to be one of the best independent albums to come out this year."

Tom Yoder is an instrumentalist whose style is rooted in bluegrass and contemporary folk music. Add a little rock edge, a touch of blues, sweeten with some country swing and you have a recipe for Tom's unique rootsy sound. As a mandolin and fiddle player for the Don Campbell Band he enjoyed the opportunity to perform at The Grand Old Opry in Nashville as winners of a national talent contest where he stole the show for his electrifying live performance.

"The immensely talented fiddle, mandolin and guitar journeyman Tom Yoder gives meaning to the word 'multiform, sampling deep within the well of acoustic roots style country and blues."
